

This post is for general informational purposes only and should not be considered to constitute legal advice.

Employment Update: Cal/OSHA Webinar on COVID-19 Regulations for Employers
Posted January 21, 2021

The Department of Industrial Relations continues to update its resources regarding Cal/OSHA's Emergency Temporary Standards (ETS) for COVID-19 prevention. Employers can find all of the resources, including a link to the updated FAQs, on the DIR's website: <https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/coronavirus/ETS.html>.

Additionally, Cal/OSHA will be providing a free webinar on COVID-19 Regulations for employers starting next week on January 28, 2021. The webinar is open to the public and is being offered multiple times over the next two months.

- You can find the dates of the webinars and the links for the Zoom registration here: <https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/coronavirus/webinars.html>.
- The webinar announcement including information on the speakers can be accessed here: <https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/coronavirus/webinar-covid-regulations-for-employer.pdf>.

If you have questions about the new COVID-19 regulations and how they apply to your company, please contact us. Thank you.