Employment Update: Governor Issues Stay at Home Order
Posted March 19, 2020

Just when we thought we had a handle on the Shelter in Place Orders, the Governor announced this evening a broad Stay at Home Order (“Home Order”). Here is the Home Order: <https://covid19.ca.gov/img/N-33-20.pdf>. It is far more restrictive and many of you who have been considered “Essential Businesses” are likely not to find yourselves included.

We will evaluate more thoroughly and see if the Governor provides more clarity tomorrow. For now, I am going home.
