

This post is for general informational purposes only and should not be considered to constitute legal advice.

Employment Update: Clarification of Essential Workers

Posted March 21, 2020

The California State Public Health Officer has issued the following guidance on who constitutes an essential worker under Governor Newsom's March 19 Stay at Home Order. It appears to largely combine the State's list with the various County Shelter in Place Orders. Fortunately, it is organized in a much more user friendly way. The list is here: <https://covid19.ca.gov/img/EssentialCriticalInfrastructureWorkers.pdf>

The big news we are now waiting for is Congress' relief package. As soon as something is passed we will put together a summary of the bill and communicate it to you as soon as possible.